

Mentoring Made Easy

Online self-paced mentoring program

With Annette Gray

Mastering the basics of mentoring so you are confident to help your mentee shine!

Who is it for?

For first time mentors or experienced mentors wanting a refresher, who are part of a formal or informal mentoring programs in their organisation or member association.

How long does it take?

In just six weeks or less, divided into four hours of content and four hours of practice, be clear on the top three elements that make mentoring work.

The program is also available for group enrolment to support your inhouse mentoring program.

- ✓ Do you want to support your mentee to make real progress in their career?
- ✓ Do you want to have an impactful mentor-mentee relationship?
- ✓ Do you want to learn the key strategies, tips and techniques that make mentoring work?

You have a lot to offer your mentee. Knowing how is key!

To make an impact on your mentee's professional and personal goals, you need to share your experience, wisdom and knowledge in a positive way.

When mentoring is done well you help your mentees shine. And that's the whole purpose of mentoring, helping mentees reach their professional and personal goals.

Mentors taking this program are able to tap into their mentees strengths and build the mentees confidence so they can reach their full potential.
